- File cleaning (e.g. conversion to XML, XLIFF, etc.)
- Data anonymization

- Identify a large source of data on individuals, organizations etc.
- Use a Named Entity Recognizer (NER) to find and remove private biodata (names, locations, dates, birth information, etc.) and replace with generic placeholders
- Confirm results meet acceptable requirements
 - Reject data if anonymization is not accurate as required

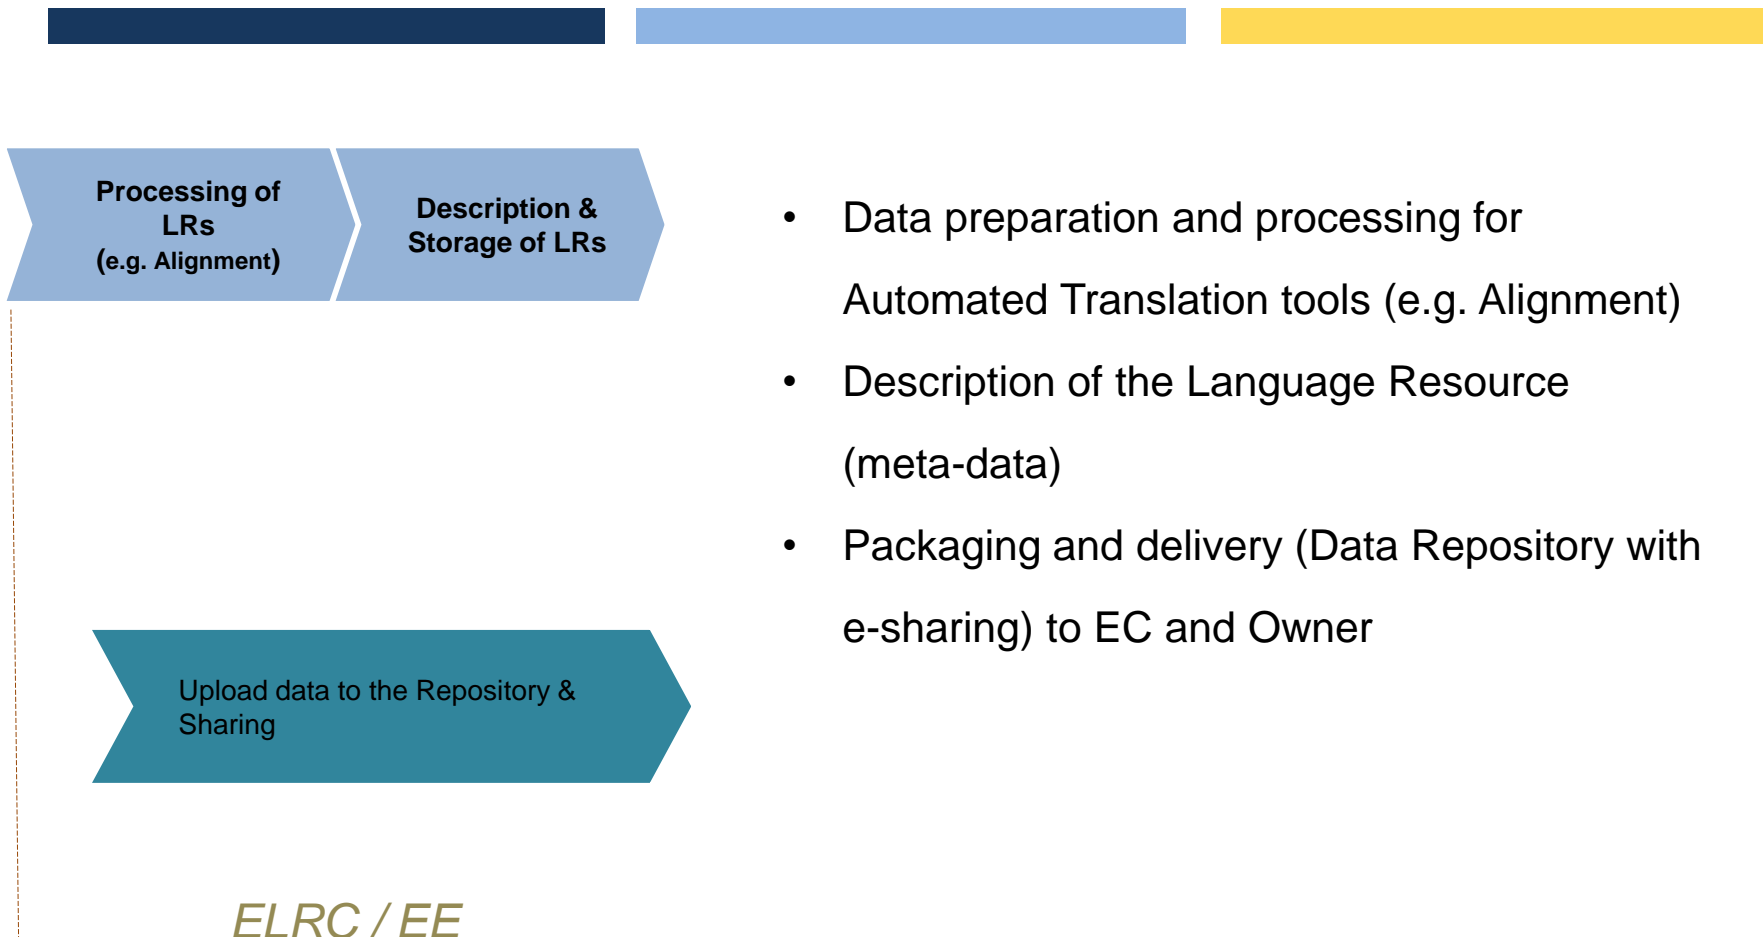

Validation

- Validation and Quality control of the output of the anonymization procedure
- Validation and Quality Control of the output (Language Resource format, content)

- Identification of sources
- Identification and selection of data sets (raw data)
 - Data can be obtained from the visible sources (e.g. harvested from web)
 - Data can be handed over by the public sector players
 - Public sector players can boost the identification of visible sources
- Processing indicated above can be carried out in cooperation by the ELRC and the data provider

- Repurposing existing data (human translations) is the best way to improve Automated Translation quality
- Data-driven paradigms provide an efficient way to leverage value from existing resources
- ELRC can help reviewing data for suitability (at any phase)
- Do not underestimate the value of your language resources, foresee a Data Management Plan

Best practice for the future: Capitalize on your valuable data

Best Practice in Data Management

- Now that I know the value of data, what should my plans be?
- What are the best ways to collect, maintain, archive and re-use my data
- In particular how can I use it for improving MT performances?

- Anticipate all potential legal issues
 - Ensure that your data IPRs are cleared
 - Ensure that the producing parties adhere to your right “ownership” (e.g. relations with LSP: ensure you keep all rights)
 - Ensure that all produced intermediary documents are yours (e.g. translation memories)
 - Check the privacy issues in advance and plan for anonymization if necessary
- Define your management plan with respect to the task
 - This has to account for the main goal (e.g. document writing, doc translation, etc.)
- Plan for repurposing (from documentation to LRs)
 - Request data in a usable format (not only PDFs but also TMX/Word/XML/TXT)
 - Make sure that your data uses up-to-date medium (no CDs?)
- Foresee for future publication and sharing as Public Sector Information (PSI)

– Specifications

- Ensure that the original documents are described
- Ensure that your needs are described
- Anticipate what you can get as valuable resources (a side effect)

– Production

- Whether internal or outsourced, check that the tools used are compatible with your needs and beyond (e.g. CAT, MT, etc.)
- Ask for the list of tools and production software
- Check if you can get texts in the multiple languages aligned to each other
- Keep a clear documentation of the data being produced (meta-data)

– Validation

- In addition to your quality control, you may want to use some of the validation tools (alignment editors, etc.)

– Sharing/distribution

- Ensure your data falls within the PSI directive as transposed in your country
- If not, foresee an open and permissive licence
- If privacy is an issue, plan necessary procedures to handle these

– Maintenance/preservation

- See how ELRC can assist you
- There is also the option of national/ European open data portal
